

Located at 701 North Main Street is the Barrow-Wilson house, owned and occupied by Mrs. Thomas Wilson. This house was built around 1890 and is an excellent example of the style of architecture so popular during the period. The fine molded brackets which can be seen under the eaves and the beautiful scrollwork capitals atop the slender porch posts are excellent examples of the fine woodwork of the period.